glasgow homelessness network

GHN is a voluntary and membership organisation working with and for people affected by homelessness. We connect knowledge and expertise to improve policy, practice and perceptions on homelessness.

Can you work flexibly in a busy environment where commitment, initiative and enterprise are essential?

INFORMATION & RESOURCE WORKER

35hrs. Monday to Friday: AP2 SCP 19-22.

Salary: £18,441 - £19,959.

GHN is looking for an enthusiastic and dynamic individual to work as part of our administration and resource team to assist our Big Lottery Funded '4front Learning' Project.

The successful candidate will assist GHN to develop and improve information management systems and ensure that we remain connected to our networks through the use of print, web-based and e-communications.

The successful candidate will build relationships across a range of cross-sector stakeholders, contributing to joint approaches to homelessness and its prevention and alleviation in Glasgow.
